

HOCHSCHULE OSNABRÜCK
UNIVERSITY OF APPLIED SCIENCES

Welcome to Osnabrück University of Applied Sciences!

Study abroad in the historic city of Osnabrück, Germany, and gain valuable experiences that make an impact on your academic, career and personal goals!

Osnabrück University of Applied Sciences welcomes you to study for a semester or intern in one of our labs or participate in an international summer program

Benefit from what Osnabrück UAS can offer you:

- Strong in teaching and research:
Business and Economics, Health (Nursing, Physiotherapy etc.)
Engineering and Computer Science
Agriculture, Food Technology, Landscape Architecture
- motivated teaching staff, superb infrastructure, state-of-the-art facilities, top-ranked library, prize-winning cafeterias
- Individual counseling and support by friendly staff and a student buddy program
- affordable furnished single rooms with shared kitchen and bath in student residences
- Osnabrück, the City of Peace: lively university city with 175,000 inhabitants, rich in history, in a clean and safe environment with plenty of sports and recreational facilities plus a lively social scene with a large variety of clubs, restaurants and cultural events (do not miss the May Week or the Christmas Market!)
- low cost of living: approx. 850 – 950 euros per month for accommodation, meals, health insurance, public transportation, study materials, leisure time activities.

Take a look at our courses and programs for international study abroad students.

