TERMS OF REFERENCE OF COMMITTEES

1. Introduction

A committee of the Board of Trustees shall be advisory in nature and shall be answerable only to the Board. A decision of the committee shall be regarded as a recommendation to the Board of Trustees.

2. Composition of committees

The committees shall comprise at least two Trustees. Appointments can be made by the Board for CPUT employees outside of the Board of Trustees. Specialists from one or more of the suppliers to the Fund, or other experts who are independent of the Board and any of its suppliers, shall be appointed to assist the committee as required.

Appointments to the committees shall be subject to review and the formal approval of the Board from time to time, based on the level of performance of the committee. The performance of the committees will be assessed annually.

A quorum for the meeting shall be at least one employer-appointed Trustee and one member-elected Trustee present.

3. Responsibilities of the committees

The responsibilities of the committees are as summarised in the tables that follow. A committee shall be responsible to and act within the delegated authority of the Board. It has the power to investigate any activity within its terms of reference.

The committees shall have the authority to seek information from any Board member or may seek independent professional advice.

4. Meetings of the committees

Meetings shall be held quarterly or as required in order to carry on the business of the Fund. Such meetings shall be planned annually in advance and shall be convened by the Principal Officer, or in his/her absence the chairperson of the board.

The Fund's Principal Officer shall be responsible for:

- (i) the distribution of agendas and supporting papers to committee members and other attendees; and
- (ii) the production of minutes.

Members of the Board shall have the right to attend committee meetings. Minutes of committee meetings shall be included in the agenda of the following Board meeting.
